CMA HOSTS REMEMBRANCE SERVICE FOR ROAD CRASH VICTIMS

In support of the official National Day of Remembrance for Road Crash Victims which was November 23rd, the Canadian Motorcycle Association conducted its Remembrance Service on Sunday, November 27th.

The location was Kinsmen Park, Port Dover, Ontario, the site of the planting of a tree and placing of a stone one year ago. This year, with the assistance of Norfolk County officials, discs commemorating the losses from years 2000 through 2008 were imbedded in the stone.

Participants in the ceremony included representatives of the Christian Motorcyclists Association, Bryan Ferwerda, Clark Oakley, Mahlon Gingerich and Harry Schutt; Welland County Motorcycle Club officials Geoffrey Tait, Wesley Pierce and Geoff's wife Carol; CMA Board Member Holly Ralph, CMA CEO Marilynn Bastedo and her husband George Cooper.

Following the service the group enjoyed luncheon at the famed Erie Beach Hotel where discussions about road safety and related matters took place.
